

Commission selects county planner

The Wasatch County Commission, after having interviewed several applicants for the position opening of Wasatch County Planner, selected Robert A. Mathis of Orem.

Mathis will assume the responsibilities of County Planner effective Jan. 1.

ning functions relating to organizing an area agency on aging. This included the

Other activities the new planner has been engaged are President Brigham Young University Gerontology Student's Association, President of Central Utah Chapter of American Society for